"The Road to Cardinal Valley" is a fitting sequel to one of my favorite books by Earlene Fowler, "The Saddlemaker's Wife". I have read most of Miss Fowler's books and this series is very different from her mysteries. The characters continue on from the first book and we get to know them and find out where they end up. There are sad moments and happy moments and then there are some surprising ones as well. I am hoping for another book in this series in the future as I still think these.
