The Skulking Way of War: Technology and Tactics

Among the New England Indians by Patrick M. Malone

(Author) The stealthy native style of warfare practiced by Indians of the forest and lake country of northeastern North America. Skulking was essentially the mode of the natural guerilla and raider, with the cultural addition that forest Indians did not make a moral distinction between murder and private war. Thus, even in times that were otherwise peaceful, a young skulking brave might
