"What Happened to Anna K." is a modern day version of Anna Karenina. I loved "Anna Karenina" but did find some of the political and farming discussions to be a bit over my head. In the modern version there was nothing that was over my head and it made for a fast read. I believe the characters were better developed in Tolstoy's original (that is why it is the classic). I found them more

Irina Reyn: What Happened to Anna K.? | Prolific Living

In What happened to Anna K., Irina Reyn gives us the life of Anna Karenina in a new light. Reyn's writing and story-telling was simply riveting. This brilliant young author had me captivated and glued to her book from page one. Reyn's writing style is remarkable for such a new novelist

What Happened to Anna K. by Irina Reyn - PopMatters

Reyn also convincingly renders Anna K.'s enduring idealism about love, and bold spirit in pursuing it, as she gears up for the party at which she'll flaunt her postpartum return to form, relishing
